CASE NO. PUR-2017-00109

For permission to aggregate or combine demands of two or more individual nonresidential retail customers of electric energy pursuant to § 56-577 A 4 of the Code of Virginia

ORDER FOR NOTICE AND COMMENT

On July 13, 2017, Reynolds Group Holdings Inc. ("Reynolds"), filed with the State Corporation Commission ("Commission") a Petition seeking permission to aggregate or combine the demands of certain nonresidential customers of electric energy pursuant to § 56-577 A 4 of the Code of Virginia ("Code").

Under Code § 56-577 A 3, retail access to competitive electricity supply is available to certain large customers with demand exceeding five megawatts. For the purpose of meeting the demand limitations of Code § 56-577 A 3, certain customers may petition for Commission approval to aggregate or combine their demands.<sup>1</sup> Code § 56-577 A 4 provides, among other things, that the Commission may approve such a petition if it finds that:

In making such determination, the Commission shall take into consideration, without limitation, the impact

<sup>1</sup> Code § 56-577 A 4 provides in part that "two or more individual nonresidential retail customers of electric energy within the Commonwealth, whose individual demand during the most recent calendar year did not exceed five megawatts, may petition the Commission for permission to aggregate or combine their demands ... so as to become qualified to purchase electric energy from any supplier of electric energy licensed to sell retail electric energy within the Commonwealth...."

and effect of any and all other previously approved petitions of like type with respect to such incumbent electric utility; and

NOW THE COMMISSION, upon consideration of Reynolds' Petition, is of the opinion and finds that the Petition should be docketed; that this Order should be served upon appropriate persons; that the Commission's Staff ("Staff") should conduct an investigation of the Petition and present its findings in a report; and that interested persons should have an opportunity to comment and request a hearing on the Petition.
