APPLICATION OF WANRACK, LLC

CASE NO. PUR-2018-00068

For certificates of public convenience and necessity to provide local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services in the Commonwealth of Virginia

ORDER FOR NOTICE AND COMMENT

On April 30, 2018, WANRACK, LLC ("WANRACK" or "Company"),¹ filed an application with the State Corporation Commission ("Commission") for certificates of public convenience and necessity to provide local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia ("Application"). The Company also requested authority to price its interexchange telecommunications services on a competitive basis pursuant to § 56-481.1 of the Code of Virginia.

NOW THE COMMISSION, upon consideration of the Application, is of the opinion and finds that it should docket the Company's Application; that WANRACK should give notice to the public of its Application; that interested persons should have an opportunity to comment and request a hearing on the Company's Application; and that the Staff of the Commission ("Staff") should conduct an investigation into the reasonableness of the Application and present its findings in a report ("Staff Report").

¹ The application as filed listed the applicant as WANRack, LLC. A review of the official records on file with the Clerk of the Commission revealed that the applicant is organized under the name WANRACK, LLC. Hence, the applicant will be referred to by its proper name going forward, using all capital letters, unless and until an official name change is effected through the Clerk's Office.
