

SCC CODE OF ETHICS

The SCC's Code of Ethics is one step which demonstrates a commitment to maintain an environment of uncompromising integrity and ethical conduct. These ethical standards serve as the fundamental factors guiding the SCC's decisions, actions, and day-to-day operations.

SCC employees will:

- Perform all duties and responsibilities ethically and in accordance with laws, regulations, policies and procedures;
- Perform all duties and regulatory responsibilities in a manner that instills public confidence in the Commission;
- Commit to using Commonwealth of Virginia and SCC resources wisely and prudently;
- Abide by the SCC's Employee Handbook and HR Manual;
- Avoid any conflict of interest or impropriety between personal and professional roles; and,
- Preserve confidential information acquired in the course of official duties, and make no use of such information to further personal interests.
