

Deadline for Filing Plans for the Individual and Small Group Federal Exchange and Any Health Insurance Plan Whose Offering/Enrollment Period Mirrors that of Exchange Plans and for Filing Exchange-certified Stand-alone Dental Plans

Carriers should submit individual and small group health insurance plan form filings no later than April 20, 2018 and rate filings no later than May 4, 2018 for the plan or policy year beginning January 1, 2019. Carriers applying to offer exchange-certified stand-alone dental plans should submit form and rate filings no later than May 4, 2018.

Should federal deadlines, technological issues, or other circumstances necessitate a date change, notification will be provided on this website.

The Bureau is currently accepting individual, small group, and stand-alone dental plan form filings for the plan or policy year beginning January 1, 2019. Complete binder filings will be accepted as soon as they are made available in SERFF but binder applications for exchange-certified stand-alone dental plans should be filed no later than May 18, 2018, and binder filings for health insurance plans in the individual and small group markets on and off the Federal exchange should be filed no later than May 25, 2018.

Finally, be advised that prior to any Bureau approval of new and renewal rates, the Commission intends to hold rate presentations on a date to be determined, for individual and small group health insurance plans that are anticipated to be offered on or off the Federal exchange.
