

Short-term Limited-duration plans in Virginia

General Information:

The Bureau of Insurance has identified the companies listed below as either having filed one or more out-of-state group association short-term limited-duration plans to be offered to Virginia residents; or having received approval to offer individual short-term limited-duration plans in Virginia. Please be aware, however, that the fact that a company has filed or secured approval of one or more short-term limited-duration plans in Virginia does not necessarily mean the company is actively marketing those plans at the current time. Also, a company may not offer short-term limited-duration plans in all areas within Virginia.
