As a general rule, documents filed with the Bureau of Financial Institutions become part of the public record. Upon request, the Bureau will consider for confidential treatment documents or portions of the application that the applicant considers of a proprietary and personal nature. The request for confidential treatment must discuss the justification for the requested treatment, specifically demonstrating the harm (for example, loss of competitive position or invasion of privacy) that may result from public release of the information. Information for which confidential treatment is requested should be: (1) specifically identified in the public portion of the application (by reference to the confidential section); and (2) specifically separated and labeled "Confidential". The Bureau will advise the applicant if the request for confidentiality cannot be honored. To view the entire Confidentiality Policy Statement of the Bureau of Financial Institutions or to download forms, visit the Bureau's website at scc.virginia.gov/pages/Bureau-of-Financial-Institutions.

Information about appeals: All applications are investigated by the Bureau of Financial Institutions. Certain application decisions are made by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions under delegated authority from the State Corporation Commission. In the event you wish to appeal either a determination made by the Bureau of Financial Institutions in the course of its investigation of your application or the Commissioner of Financial Institutions' decision on your application, you may request a formal review by the State Corporation Commission in accordance with its Rules of Practice and Procedure (scc.virginia.gov/pages/Case-Information)
