

Guide for Articles of Entity Conversion

The Commission produced this guide to help you prepare the limited liability company's articles of entity conversion. You must prepare your articles as a separate document, using this form as a guide only, inserting appropriate information and omitting all inapplicable text (like the header, seal of the Commission, and the italicized portions).

NOTE: A marked-up version of this guide will not be accepted.

ARTICLES OF ENTITY CONVERSION OF

(limited liability company's name)

Pursuant to Title 13.1, Chapter 12, Article 15 of the Code of Virginia, the undersigned, on behalf of the limited liability company set forth below, states as follows:

Specific Instructions

Article I Name

The entity must use one of these designations in its name:

- Corp. • Corporation
- Inc. • Incorporated
- Co. • Company
- Ltd. • Limited

The proposed name must be distinguishable from other entity names on record with the Commission. To check the availability of a name, visit <https://cis.scc.virginia.gov>, or contact the Clerk's Office.

Article III Plan of Entity Conversion

The plan of entity conversion must detail the manner and basis of converting the membership interests of the limited liability company into shares of stock of the resulting corporation, which must preserve the ownership proportion and the relative rights, preferences, and limitations of each membership interest. This is often expressed as a ratio, as it allows one to determine how many shares each member will receive when the limited liability company becomes a corporation (e.g., "Each 1% membership interest in the limited liability company will be converted into 10 shares of common stock of the resulting corporation."). However, if one person holds all of the membership interests, it would be sufficient to state that the membership interests of the sole member of the limited liability company will be converted into a specified number of shares.

Article IV Approval

(1) If the limited liability company has members, unless the articles of organization or a written operating agreement of the limited liability company provides otherwise, the members shall approve the plan of entity conversion in the manner provided in the limited liability company's operating agreement for amendments to the operating agreement by the members or, if no provision is made in the operating agreement, by all the
